1. Investigating National Congress of Jurists
Final Resolution by Plenary Assembly

1. Whereas Jurists from 43 countries in the world are in their individual capacities in this Congress in Berlin on the invitation of the Investigating Committee of Free-minded Jurists, to the Soviet Zone of Germany operating in West-Berlin to consider the evidence presented by the Free-minded Jurists of justice in the Soviet Zone of Germany and whereas the Committee is appointed by the members of the Free-minded Jurists to Civil and Economic Law, in the Soviet Zone of Germany and whereas the working committee of the Congress considered the evidence presented by the Free-minded Jurists having heard witness, now resolve as follows:

- a) The Committee on Public Law (Appendix 1)
- b) The Committee on Penal Law (Appendix 2)
- c) The Committee on Civil and Economic Law (Appendix 3)
- d) The Committee on Labor Law (Appendix 4)

Resolved:

- 1. That the Congress adopts the reports of the working committees.
- 2. That the Congress is impressed by the authenticity of the material gathered by the Investigating Committee of Free-minded Jurists and the weight of the evidence and is of the opinion that generally accepted principles of law have been violated by the administration of the Soviet Zone as set forth in the reports of the working committees.
- 3. That the Congress believes that violations of principles of the kind referred to in these reports is a matter of grave concern not only to Jurists but to all people throughout the world.

2. Resolved: That the Congress considers that its work should be continued and to that end that a Standing Committee of the Free-minded Jurists be appointed with

(Final Resolution by Plenary Assembly)

4. a) To maintain contact between the coordinating Committee of Prog. Jurists and the members of the Congress.
- b) To receive such answers and other communications as may result from the action taken by Congress.
- c) To take such further action as the Standing Committee may deem desirable to implement the objectives of the Congress.

5. Resolved: That the Congress elects the following as members of the Standing Committee: Hon. J. T. Thorson, Ottawa, Canada; Mr. P. S. Pederspield, Copenhagen, Denmark; Sr. José Nabucco, Rio de Janeiro, Brasil; Hon. H. B. Tyabji, Karachi, Pakistan; Dr. E. Zellweger, Zürich, Switzerland; and Mr. A. J. M. van Dal, The Hague, Holland, with the power to replace and co-opt; and that Hon. J. T. Thorson be Chairman and Mr. A. J. M. van Dal Secretary of such Standing Committee.

6. Resolved: That the Secretariat of the Standing Committee of the Congress be established at The Hague under the direction of its Secretary, Mr. A. J. M. van Dal, Nooreinde, Den Haag, Holland.

7. Resolved: That with a view to assisting the Standing Committee in its work, Dr. Theo Frieden be requested to keep the Standing Committee currently informed about the condition behind the Iron Curtain.

8. Resolved: That a statement of the resolutions adopted by the Congress be sent to the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany.

7. Resolved: That a statement of the resolutions adopted by the Congress together with copy of the publication "Injustice as a System" be sent to the Government of the German Democratic Republic and to the Occupation authorities of the Soviet Zone of Germany.

8. Resolved: That a statement of the resolutions adopted by the Congress together with a copy of the publication "Injustice as a System" be sent to the Secretary General of the United Nations for their information and action as may be appropriate.

9. Resolved: That the Committee on German War Crimes and Investigating Commission do all in their power to assist in gathering the material necessary to bring to justice the criminals hopes that this committee and the Commission of Justice its work in rendering justice to the victims of Nazi in the Soviet Zone and still more firmly that the rule of law will ultimately prevail and that freedom and justice will be restored.
